

BRITISH PULLMAN

LONDON

STEP INTO THE GOLDEN AGE OF TRAVEL ABOARD THE AUTHENTIC VINTAGE CARRIAGES OF THIS CELEBRATED TRAIN

British Pullman, sister train to the Venice Simplon Orient-Express embodies everything that was fabulous about the roaring 1920s and '30s. In their heyday, these authentic carriages formed part of the most famous and luxurious services in Britain—The Bournemouth Belle, The Brighton Belle, The Queen of Scots and The Golden Arrow. Today, each carriage has been lovingly restored and refurbished, so that you too can experience the glamour of vintage rail travel.

THE JOURNEY

Based in the South East of England, British Pullman has regular departures out of London Victoria Station with occasional departures from other stations nationwide. With destinations such as Goodwood Revival, Historic Bath, Chatsworth House and experiences including Valentine’s Day and “The Dinner” in association with Celebrity Chefs, British Pullman makes every trip a unique experience and every journey one of true elegance.

SUGGESTED JOURNEYS:

- City Visits: Bath, Canterbury, York
- Exclusive dining experiences
- Sporting Events
- Weekend Breaks

SEASON: January – December

TYPICAL CAPACITY

Number of Passengers:	226

HIGHLIGHTED JOURNEYS

Much to the success of “The Dinner” journeys in 2014 we are continuing our glamorous evening soiree on wheels, hosted by well-known chefs. Put on your finery and step aboard British Pullman for an exclusive experience in London.

Or if you simply feel like spoiling yourself, enjoy a cocktail reception party followed by a seasonal tasting menu, paired with our sommelier’s choice of wines, in a completely unique venue.

For a truly British experience why not join British Pullman to Britain’s best-preserved Georgian city Bath. Take a guided coach tour or choose to explore Bath at your leisure—its many highlights include the historic Roman Baths and Pump Room, museums, antiques shops and chic boutiques.

LIFE ON-BOARD

CARRIAGES

Each British Pullman carriage is unique, bearing its own name as well as a colourful history. Lovingly refurbished, their exquisite design and workmanship is legendary.

Veneered panels gleam. Art Deco lamps shed soft light on polished brass, bevelled glass and glossy mahogany fittings, while the unique armchairs provide comfortable and intimate dining.

INDULGENT DINING

Dining on British Pullman is pure indulgence, with innovative dishes and excellent wines served by your steward. Each menu is lovingly conceived by our chef using the finest British ingredients. His passion is fuelled by knowing he is a part of making someone's special occasion extraordinary.

Each meal is accompanied by the finest wines and Champagnes, expertly selected by our sommelier.

DRESS CODE

Smart day wear is requested for our journeys. For Dinner departures and for social sporting events such as Glorious Goodwood, passengers may prefer to wear more formal attire.

BOUTIQUE

Onboard there is a boutique which is the ideal place to purchase a memento of your journey on British Pullman. The boutique offers a rich variety of traditional British crafts.

EXTENSIONS

Our day trips and weekend breaks are entirely flexible: enjoy a train journey on its own or we can organise an extended experience with an overnight stay. We recommend the following hotels:

The Savoy

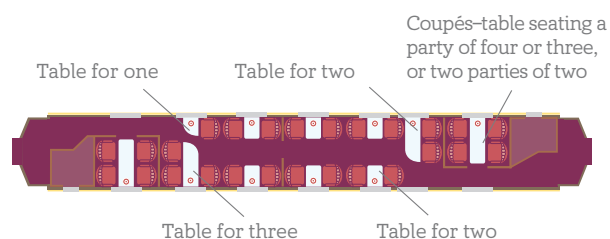

A British icon since 1889, The Savoy's 268 guestrooms and suites are the last word in style and opulence. The famed Savoy Grill, American Bar and River Room are among the world-class dining options.

The Ritz London

Elegant rooms and attentive service make for a memorable stay at this hotel located on Piccadilly. The restaurant is called by many the most beautiful in London.
