

HIRAM BINGHAM

MACHU PICCHU

FACT SHEET

The Hiram Bingham luxury train travels through the magical Sacred Valley to Machu Picchu, offering its passengers more than a journey, a unique experience in life. Named after the explorer who rediscovered the Inca citadel, the luxury train can carry up to 84 passengers. Its two plush Dining Cars, Observation Car and Bar Car evoke the style of 1920s Pullman cars, featuring highly polished woods and brass, and sumptuous armchairs.

JOURNEY

BRUNCH

A glass of sparkling wine and freshly squeezed orange juice is served as the train starts its journey towards Machu Picchu. Next follow a traditional Peruvian appetizer, a delicious main course, dessert and coffee. Brunch is accompanied by a selection of Peruvian wines.

DINNER

As the train departs from the station and heads back toward Poroy, a four-course, Andean-inspired menu is served. Passengers may wish to sample a pisco sour in the Bar Car before taking their seats to enjoy a host of Peruvian delights.

Lively onboard entertainment from local musicians is an additional highlight of every journey.

INCLUDED SERVICES

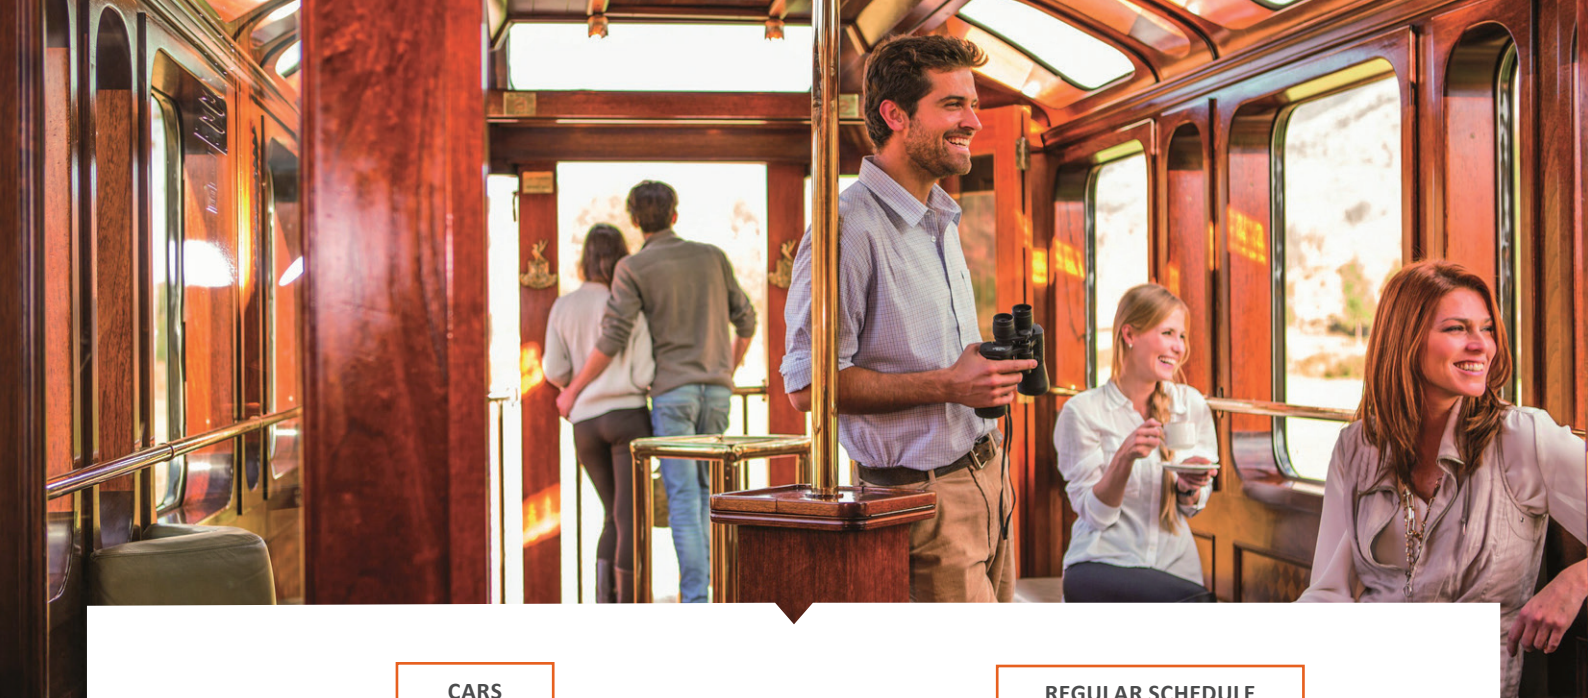

As well as the gourmet brunch, dinner and entertainment, the outbound journey includes a guided tour of Machu Picchu with separate guides for every 14 passengers.

One-way bus transfer from the station and an entrance ticket to the Machu Picchu citadel. Afternoon tea at Sanctuary Lodge, adjacent to Machu Picchu.

The return journey includes an afternoon tea at Belmond Sanctuary Lodge, adjacent to Machu Picchu. One-way bus transfer from the citadel to the station. An exclusive private lounge at Machu Picchu Pueblo station.

Alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks are all inclusive, except for a wine selection that has an additional cost.

CARS

Passengers are invited to enjoy brunch and a gastronomic dinner, specially created by our onboard chef. These feasts can be savored along with the mesmerizing views as the train makes its way through the dramatic Peruvian countryside.

THE BAR - OBSERVATORY CAR is the perfect place to enjoy a cocktail accompanied by live music. It is furnished with large military green padded seats, keeping the hand woven scheme. Detail of bronze and marble on the bar railing give it an innovative and elegant look, making it the ideal place to sit, relax and watch the wonderful landscape unfold.
